

DANCE FOR HOME GARDEN.
Three Hundred Young Folk of Every Age Give Aid to Charity.

The dance given last night at Brooklyn under the direction of Miss Margaret Sutton Porter and Miss M. Louise Davis for the benefit of the Home Garden Association, was one of the largest and gayest events of the late season. About three hundred persons were present.

Knapp, Constance Peabody, Cordele Thompson, Genevieve L. Stanford, Margaret C. Henderson, Sylvia Holt Rita, Dorothy, Dorothy A. Moore, Vera Croswell, Barbara Smith, Erika V. House, Mary Hall, Helen de F. Britton, Margaret Elbert, Edith Fair, and Gertrude M. Green.

QUESTS OF DE GINK GET THE GATE; THE HOTEL SHUT DOWN

Hobos Start for New Home at Yaphank, L. I., but Sheriff Awaits Them.

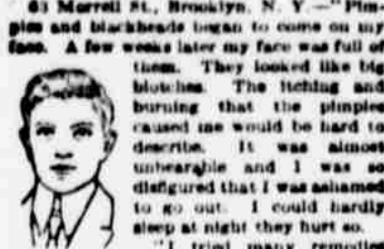

The Hotel de Gink is no more. The City Fathers closed the doors of the inaptible hostelry of the hobos at 1 o'clock to-day. The open season to slumberland for the weary hobo had hung on the door of the city's building for three months, lacking three days, at No. 75 Centre Street. By the command of the city and the consent of the hobos, to-day was elected moving day. And the hobos moved.

Edward C. Becherer, representing the Mayor's committee, was at the hotel this morning to see that the hobos took all their belongings and none of the city's. Two policemen were on duty to protect the city and Mr. Becherer. At one time it looked as if the belligerent arm of the hobos would descend upon Mr. Becherer when he attempted to separate the city's chaff from the noxious wheat. Jeff Davis, king of the hobos, waved back the belligerents, but finally delivered himself of a lot of unknd things at Becherer and said he was the "snake in the grass" who was responsible for a lot of trouble which had been visited upon the interned hobos.

The hobos' moving van was a big auto truck and its destination is Yaphank, L. I. George E. Crater, man of the world, traveller, promoter and philanthropist, has a large tract of land at or near Yaphank and has donated a section of it. Jeff Davis said the hobos would build "bungalows" on the land and take care of Mr. Crater.

FACE FULL OF ITCHING PIMPLES

And Blackheads. Itching and Burning Almost Unbearable. So Disfigured Ashamed to Go Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

63 Carroll St., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"Pimples and blackheads longer to come on my face was full of them. They looked like big blisters. The itching and burning that the pimples caused me would be hard to describe. It was almost unbearable and I was so disgusted that I was ashamed to go out. I could hardly sleep at night they hurt so."

"I tried many remedies but all failed to help. I had the trouble for about three years when I saw a Cuticura advertisement in the paper, and started to use them. I was surprised to see the results. In a month my friends could hardly recognize me I was so much changed. Before going to bed I would bathe my face in warm water with Cuticura Soap, dry it and put the Cuticura Ointment on. Cuticura Soap and Ointment healed me in three months." (Signed) Hyman Novis, August 7, 1914.

Crater's claim. Mr. Crater is addition to his other accomplishments a chicken fancier.

While the above and piano, beds and chairs, blankets and clothing and the other household accoutrements were being moved out, partitions with and sometimes without Mr. Becherer's permission, heads of the hordes were consulting the map of Long Island, trying to locate Yaphank and the shortest cut to it. Mr. Crater had invited Jeff Davis and some of his leading hooligan to go to their new home with him later on in his automobile.

Then came the distressing and disturbing news that the Sheriff was awaiting the procession of hobos at Yaphank. A message was also received from Mr. Crater that a serious situation had arisen and that he would see Jeff Davis later about it.

"That's the way," said Jeff. "More trouble. They're working against us again. But what can the Sheriff do? Why, we're property owners. We've got a piano. That'll show the Sheriff that we're not bums; and look at all the rest of our things. I guess we'll surprise those people down there some."

Some of the hobos thought they might be able to ride on the motor truck. There was room, though, for only two or three. The rest, about twenty in number, said they would pursue the usual mode of travel, by the freight. Jeff and a chosen few will ride down in style, with Crater. The truck was a light one over which in the hobo wanted to carry some of their dross. They had to leave the basket behind. So, just before the doors closed, they put an old shirt in the basket and hung it.

Angry Hobs was down at the door to say good-bye. Two inmates remained closer by, still protecting the city's property and Mr. Becherer. The city's chief deputy, however, and definitely the two individuals were put into the cars.

Mrs. Sally goes for Her Jewels.

Justice Newburger in the Supreme Court to-day signed an order directing Mrs. Emma L. Sulley, wife of Daniel J. Sulley, jeweler, to stand trial in an examination before the trial in the suit for the recovery of $125,000 worth of jewels which she brought against Tiffany & Co. the jewelers. Mrs. Sulley says she was swindled out of her jewels by her husband, who, she claims, had given them to her as security for a debt he had incurred.

The trial was adjourned until Feb. 10, giving the jeweler time to get his jewels back.
